LOCAL MAN IS CHARGED WITH ROOFING FRAUD

The arrest of a Gettysburg and three Harrisburg men on charges of fleecing an elderly Maryland woman of $2,350 in a "roofing racket" was reported Friday by State Police Capt. Richard D. Gray, commanding officer of Troop A.

He identified them as William Fisher, 33; Raymond C. Ross, 32; Harry Monroe Singleton, 35, all of Harrisburg, and John Robert Connor, 40, of the 100 block of York St., Gettysburg.

State Police Sgt. Joseph L. Pochyba and Trooper Matthew Hunt arrested the suspects in Harrisburg Thursday on information received from City Det. Capt. James E. Van of Cumberland, Md.

They were held in lieu of bail by Alderman Elizabeth Wagner for Cumberland authorities.

USE "OLD RACKET"

Sgt. Pochyba said the Cumberland woman Oct. 9 reportedly paid the suspects $2,350 for roof repairs to her property which they had not repaired.

The identity of the victim was not immediately available.

Sgt. Pochyba said the suspects were traced through the registration of a station wagon owned by Connor's wife. The registration number was obtained when one of the suspects returned to the victim's home in an effort to obtain additional money, the sergeant added.

"The four men reportedly operated from the station wagon with a bucket of tar, a couple of ladders and a little aluminum," Pochyba continued. "Fisher and Connor distributed printed cards indicating they were general contractors. It's an old racket. About 20 men have been operating in a similar manner in this area."

COLLEGE WILL MARK U.N. DAY

Gettysburg College will observe United Nations Day with a worship service at the regular chapel hour Wednesday morning at 10:50 a.m. A display of flags of the United Nations will be in the narthex of Christ Chapel during the day. The chapel choir will sing an anthem, Dr. Harold A. Dunkelberger will open the service and Rev. Donald May, of the Central Presbyterian Church, Chambersburg, will speak.

Rev. May was born in Paris while his parents were engaged in language study preparatory to their service as missionaries in the Cameroons, West Africa. He graduated from the Mercersburg Academy, Mercersburg, in 1942, and received his A.B. degree in the field of Philosophy and Religion in 1945 from Princeton University. He graduated from the Princeton Theological Seminary in 1948. He is now doing graduate study at the local seminary. He had been director of religious education for the Presbyterian Church, Abington, and pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Eddington.

The theme for the chapel observance will be "The U.N.—A Beachhead."

Will Extend Town Water Line 3,000 Ft.

The Fairfield Municipal Authority, with approval of the borough council at a joint meeting Friday evening in the school cafeteria, awarded a contract to extend the town's water main about 3,000 feet at the east end of town.

The contract for $12,652 was awarded to James F. Favino, Red Lion. He said work on the project will begin within a few days. There were two other bidders.

The contract calls for making connection to the water main at the end of Main St., extending huddled feet on Rt. 116 to the Orrtanna Rd., and then several hundred feet on that road, a distance of 3,000 feet. The main will be carried under Middle Creek near Rt. 116, Frank M. Moore, secretary of the authority said.

William E. Sees Jr., of Harrisburg, is the engineer for the project.

ALL CATHOLICS WILL OBSERVE MISSION DAY

Catholic Churches in the Diocese of Harrisburg will join in the annual observance of World Wide Mission Sunday on Sunday.

In a pastoral letter read in all churches last Sunday, Bishop George L. Leech called upon all Catholics to "pray and support the efforts of the church throughout the world" citing Mission Sunday as a "special occasion for each one to show his faith in God and his charity toward his neighbor."

At the same time it was announced by the office of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith that a record total of $248,243.46 was contributed to mission efforts last year throughout the diocese. Of this amount, Rev. Leo A. Beierschmitt, director of the society, announced that over $125,000 was used to support mission efforts in foreign countries. The remaining amount engaged in the work, as well as other mission efforts in the United States and in the diocese.

SERVE 750 AREAS

The principal work of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is to send missionaries working in some 750 different areas throughout the world. Of those serving overseas 8,000 are American born. 25 are from the 15-county area of the Diocese of Harrisburg. These missionaries conduct over 5,000 hospitals and 45,000 schools and 300 lepersoria as well as many other works of charity throughout the world.

One of the principal sources of support for these works in the Mission Sunday observance which is under the direction of the Rev. Fr. Beierschmitt, diocesan director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Bishop Fulton J. Sheen of New York is the national director.

U.S. Spreads 5-Mile-Wide Band Of 350 Million Tiny Needles Around The Earth

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (AP)—A Midas missile-alarm rocket shot aloft today with a controversial cargo: 350 million tiny copper needles to be spread in a radio-reflective belt around the earth.

If successful the experiment will place in space a five-mile-wide band of hair-like reflectors which scientists can use to bounce radio waves half-way around the world.

Some astronomers have opposed the experiment on the grounds that if the needles go awry in space they could interfere with optical and radio observations of the stars, or even damage satellites.

TEST IS APPROVED

Despite the controversy, approval for the test was given earlier this month by President Kennedy's scientific adviser, Dr. Jerome B. Wiesner.

Word on whether the Midas satellite achieved orbit, and whether it then properly ejected its package of needles, was expected two or more hours after launch.

The tiny needles, each 7-10 of

STAUB-STAUD NUPTIALS READ THIS MORNING

Miss Joanne Marie Staub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Staub, Bonneville, became the bride of Kenneth Michael Staub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Staub, Hanover, at 10 o'clock this morning in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Bonneville.

Rev. Fr. Louis W. Forgeng officiated at the nuptial Mass and double-ring ceremony.

Mums and pompons of assorted colors decorated the altar. The children's choir with Mrs. Bernard Walter, organist, provided the music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza, with a fitted embroidered bodice, round neckline, long tapered sleeves and a bouffant skirt with a chapel train. Her veil of silk illusion was fastened to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and staphenotis tied with satin ribbon and streamers. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

MAID OF HONOR

Miss Elaine Bolin, Washington, D. C., the maid of honor, was attired in a Kelly green chiffon gown. She wore a matching hat with a face veil and carried a bouquet of orange and yellow mums and pompons.

Estimate 8,000 At Dillsburg Parade

Approximately 8,000 persons lined through streets Friday evening to witness the kiddies' parade, featuring the second day's activities of the Dillsburg Farmers' fair. Cash awards were presented winners of the 11-division parade.

Fair officials estimated the number of persons witnessing the parade and reminded interested persons that tonight's fantastic parade will start promptly at 8 p.m. In case of rain this event will be held Monday evening.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

West Virginia mountain communities labored under emergency conditions today to shake off the effects of an unseasonable storm that blanketed some areas with nearly two feet of snow.

In the northeast, tropical storm Gerda lashed the coast with gale winds and high seas from Provincetown to Eastport, Maine. The storm churned northeastward in the Atlantic packing winds up to 65 miles an hour in gusts.

The surprise snowstorm swept over much of the central Appalachians Friday closing schools, snarling air and ground travel and toppling trees and utility lines.

EMERGENCY CONDITIONS

Emergency conditions existed in the West Virginia mountain communities of Richwood and Summersville as the heavy, wet snow severed power lines and halted electrically operated municipal water supplies.

Residents melted snow for water.

Curfews were in effect in both communities and volunteers were called out to aid police in keeping

DR. A. MONTAGU HOME TO MARK ANNIVERSARY

Dr. Ashley Montagu, anthropologist and social biologist of Princeton, N. J., will speak in the Student Union auditorium at Gettysburg College Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. His topic will be "Man and Human Nature."

He was born in England and educated at the University of London and the University of Florence. He came to the United States in 1930 and became a naturalized citizen. He holds the Ph.D. degree from Columbia University.

Dr. Montagu formerly taught anatomy and was an associate professor at Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia. From 1949-1955 he was chairman of the department of anthropology at Rutgers University. He has been a lecturer in the New School of Social Research since 1948, and a consultant to NBC-TV, UNESCO and Veterans Administration. He wrote the statement on "race" for the United Nations.

Dr. Montagu has had 12 books published including: "Man's Most Dangerous Myth — The Fallacy of Race," "Edward Tyson: The Rise of Human Anatomy in England," "Introduction to Physical Anthropology," "Adolescent Sterility," "The Natural Superiority of Women," "Human Development," "Man and Human Nature," "Man — The First Million Years."

The snowfall measured eight inches in Bluefield, three inches in the Great Smokies near Gatlinburg, Tenn., with an inch falling on Mount Mitchell, N. C. with a midday temperature of 21 degrees.

3 INCHES OF RAIN

East of the snow-stricken area, heavy rains lashed portions of the central Atlantic states. Three inches fell in seven hours in Charlottesville, Va., and more than an inch at Norfolk.

There was some fog and drizzle in the Ohio Valley and scattered showers and light snow in portions of the Pacific Northwest but skies were mostly clear over the rest of the country.

Temperatures dropped to the low 30s across most of the northern tier of states with a low of 23 recorded at Lewistown, Mont. The mercury ranged to the 60s and some 70s from the Southeast across the South and into California with the 40s and 50s prevailing elsewhere.

Special services will be conducted Sunday, beginning at 3 p.m., at the Hanover unit of Homewood Church Home, Inc., marking the fourth anniversary of the dedication of the home in the former Hotel McAllister building, York St.

The occasion will be observed as annual visitation day for members of the United Church of Christ in this area.

The Rev. Dr. Raymond F. Frankenfeld, pastor of St. Matthew's Church, Baltimore, will be the speaker. He is a former president of the Missouri Valley Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and serves on the board of the Emmanuel Homes in Missouri. He served churches in the midwest prior to assuming his Baltimore pastorate in 1959.

LITTLESTOWN CHOR

The Rev. Roland F. F. Roehner, York, will assist in the service. Members of the choir of Redeemer Church, Littlestown, will provide music.

The Hanover unit of Homewood Church Homes, Inc., is one of three operated for aging members of the Evangelical and Reformed constituency of the United Church of Christ in this area. The others are at Carlisle and near Hagersburg, Md.

The Hanover unit at present has 73 residents. LeRoy Hoffheins and the Rev. Dr. Howard E. Sheely, Hanover, and the Rev. Ernest W. Brindle, Hampton, are members of the board of trustees of Homewood Church Home, Inc.

DR. DOO TO SPEAK

5 COUNTIANS ARE HONORED BY STATE S. S.

Five Adams Countians were among 69 Sunday School leaders and teachers who have served Pennsylvania Sunday Schools for 50 or more years who were awarded citations at the 99th annual Pennsylvania Sunday School convention at St. Matthew Lutheran Church in York.

Those from Adams County who received 50-year service medals from the Rev. Dr. Franklin Duncombe, Narberth, association director, were Mrs. Nellie A. Beam, Gardners, 57 years; Charles C. Culp, Gettysburg, 50 years; Luther Lady, Biglerville, 54 years; Mrs. Nora E. Leer, York Springs, 50 years, and Danzil W. Slusser, Gardners, 50 years.

They were commended as "faithful workers" for their long terms of faithful service. Top recognition went to George H. Sprengle, Hanover, who was honored for 64 years of service.

HEAR DR. RASMUSSEN

Delegates to the convention were told Friday night that an "educated heart cannot be cold toward the misled, the misshapen, or the underprivileged."

Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen, professor of systematic theology, Gettysburg Theological Seminary, spoke to several thousand Sunday School conventioners on the "Education of the Heart."

Rev. Norman Paulin, professor of evangelism and pastoral ministry, Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, was an earlier convention speaker.

Dr. Rasmussen told the delegates that "the education of the heart is the heart of good education. Out of the heart are the issues of life. It takes a right (Continued On Page 2)

TWO CRASHES INVESTIGATED

State and township police were called when two rear end collisions occurred on roads south of here in Cumberland Twp. Friday evening.

State police investigated an accident 3½ miles south of here on the Littlestown Rd. at 8:30 o'clock. According to the officers, Helen R. Kuhn, 33, Gettysburg R. 1, was driving her car north, and slowed to right a right turn into a private drive. The officers said Charles William Mosser, 22, Chambersburg, also driving north, saw the Kuhn car slow, braked and his car skidded on the rain-wet highway, with the right rear of the Mosser auto striking the left rear of the Kuhn vehicle. No one was reported injured. Damage was estimated at $100 to Mosser's 1961 car and $50 to the 1949 Kuhn auto.

Cumberland Twp. Policeman Bernard V. Miller investigated an accident Friday night about 3½ miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd.

Officer Miller said James B. Mosso, Camp Hill, was going south near the Edgewood Lanes when the car ahead of him stopped. Mosso brought his vehicle to a halt. According to Officer Miller, Francis Goulden, 205 N. Seton Ave., Emmitsburg, also driving south, was unable to stop his car quickly enough and it struck the rear of the Mosso auto. No one was reported injured. Damage was estimated at $100 to the Goulden car and $150 to Mosso's auto.

Dominican Republic Capital Rocked By Most Violent Riot Since Trujillo Assassination

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—This Caribbean island nation seethed with hostile anti-Trujillo rumblings today after a night of bloody rioting. Prospects heightened for a government proclamation of martial law.

Unofficial sources listed at least two teen-agers dead and about 45 other persons injured in Friday night's rioting—the most violent outbreak here since the assassination of Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo last May.

The official police report mentioned no deaths but said an undetermined number were injured, including 15 policemen who suffered minor injuries from rock barrages.

Fire Damages Navy Plane At Rec Park

Gettysburg firemen were called at 9:30 o'clock Friday night when the Navy jet plane at the Recreation Field caught fire. Firemen found the head rest and seat of the plane on fire and used two fire extinguishers to put out the blaze. They made no estimate of damage.

The plane was brought here several years ago for children of the Navy to play on. Vandals broke the glass canopy over the cockpit, cut holes on the body and on one side either fired shots through it or poked holes into it with a sharp pointed instrument. At its meeting on Monday night the Recreation Board decided to ask the Navy to remove the plane, believing it useless to try to repair it.

DR. SHEELY TO HEAD DIABETES WEEK DRIVE

Dr. Raymond F. Sheely has been named by the Adams County Medical Society to head the Diabetes Week campaign to be held November 12 through 18.

Dr. Sheely said today that plans have not been completed for a "Diabetes Detection Drive" to be held in connection with the educational activities of his committee, but said he will have details of the campaign in the near future.

"Diabetes is on the rise, a total of 2,750,000 Americans now have diabetes—and nearly half of them do not know they have the condition," Dr. Sheely said.

The campaign being pushed by the American Diabetes Association is to "find the one person in 140 who is an unknown diabetic and alert him to the need for prompt medical care," Dr. Sheely said.

SIMPLE PAINLESS TEST

Diabetes ranks seventh in the U. S. among illnesses causing death but "a controlled diabetic, one who is under medical care, can continue to lead a normal life. The biggest problem is that many persons have diabetes and do not know it, hence take no special care."

"We hope to call the attention of the general public to the danger, so that persons will take the simple, safe and painless test which will determine whether they are suffering from diabetes."

Physical symptoms which might be caused by diabetes are excessive thirst, loss of weight, despite unusual hunger, slow healing of cuts and bruises, intense itching, changes in vision, easy tiring and pain in the extremities. "But the unfortunate fact is that diabetes can be present without any of these symptoms appearing, thus the person has no warning that he is ill until the situation becomes extremely dangerous."

NOTIFY JURORS COMMON PLEAS TRIAL LIST HAS "DISAPPEARED"

Sheriff Dawson Miller will be busy this weekend notifying 42 countians scheduled for civil court jury duty during the October term that they will not have to be at Gettysburg at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning.

Six civil cases had been scheduled for trial starting Monday, Friday afternoon Judge W. C. Sheely learned that the last case of the group of six had been settled.

One case, an action in trespass brought by Gertrude M. Wood of Washington on behalf of herself and children against A. B. Seifert and Son, John H. Hampshire, Inc., Metropolitan Edison Co. and Gettysburg College over the death of her husband in an accident while working on the roof of the college's new dining hall several years ago was continued before the trial list was returned to the prothonotary from the printer.

FIVE ARE SETTLED

Then, one by one, the remaining five cases were settled. By the middle of this week the number of cases for trial was down to two, then one, and finally on Friday afternoon the last case was settled.

The cases, either continued or settled, included the one brought by Mrs. Wood; the action in replevin brought by Motor Insurance Corporation of New York against Hilary Rife Used Cars of New Oxford; a trespass action brought by Mary and Bernard Gazo of Lansford against Clarence Lentz, Biglerville R. 2; a trespass action brought by Doyle E. Staley, Waynesboro, against Gerald Harris, Newark, N. J.; a trespass action brought by John C. Amos and Hazel Bigham, Fairfield R. 1, against Jack C. Orner, Fairfield R. 1, and a trespass action brought by Charles E. Baughman, 218 S. Howard Ave., against Harold M. Carson Jr., Fairfield.

TO OPERATE TWO CENTERS

Officials of the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults are preparing for a full-time two-center program beginning Wednesday, November 1. Mrs. Lionel Karl Baker, 232 W. Main St., has been employed as the society's second full-time physical therapist and is planned to operate both the Chambersburg and Waynesboro treatment centers five days weekly beginning in November.

Mrs. Baker's election was approved at a quarterly directors' meeting Wednesday in Chambersburg.

At the same meeting the directors appointed Dr. W. W. Barkley, Waynesboro, as chairman of the 1962 Easter Seal drive which will extend from March 15 to April 22.

The announcement of the employment of a second full-time therapist apparently ends a proposal made last month to the Adams County Crippled Children's Society by which Adams and Franklin Counties would share the services of one therapist while the other served full time in Franklin County.

The Inter-Church Council of Peters and St. Thomas Townships will sponsor a Union Reformation service for the churches of the surrounding communities of Fort Loudon, Lemasters, St. Thomas, Upton, Williamson, Markes and Edenville Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Lemasters. The speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen, professor of systematic theology of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg.

LIONS CLUB MEETS

The York Springs Lions Club met Tuesday evening in the Scout cabin with President Fred Stough presiding. The guests were game protector Paul Glenn, Gettysburg, and deputy Kenneth Bieseker Orrtanna. They showed a film entitled "Mourning Dove." The club is sponsoring the sale of light bulbs. The proceeds will go toward the prizes for the Halloween parade.

U.S. Spreads

In Midas simply because the satellite was going into a high orbit and had space available.

MAY FIRE ANOTHER

After one successful experiment, scientists may try to put up another radio-reflective band around the equator. These two bands, officials said, would permit worldwide radio transmission on frequencies not now usable.

Dr. John Harrington, head of the radiophysics division of the Lincoln Laboratory of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, said the experiment called for this sequence of events, all invisible from the ground:

After ejection from the satellite the tiny wires, embedded in a binding material which disintegrates swiftly in space, were to erupt into an expanding cloud.

The cloud would then spread along the orbit of the satellite, gradually forming a 5-by-25-mile ring around the earth.

QUARTER MILE APART

If properly distributed, the tiny wires, called dipoles, should be a quarter mile apart in the band. They would be too far apart to obscure vision or damage satellites, he said.

But if something goes wrong and they remain in a clump the wires could form a blot in the sky. A satellite passing through the clump might be scorched as if by meteors.

Harrington said that if all goes well giant radio antennas on each coast of the United States will try to send and receive signals bounced off the tiny dipoles.

The antennas, at Parks Air Force Base, near San Francisco, and on Millstone Hill in Westford, Mass., have been tested by bouncing signals off the moon.

WILL ELUDE ENEMY

Harrington said the band of dipoles, each capable of reflecting signals, would be of tremendous help in military communications and later might be adapted to civilian use. Commercial radio stations would not broadcast to the public in this way, but the system could replace expensive relays and wires which now carry network programs across a continent.

One military advantage, Harrington said, is that it would be almost impossible for an enemy to listen to or jam the frequency. "There are so many of the particles in the band that it would be almost impossible for an enemy to tune in on the one we were using," he said.

Harrington estimated the useful life of the bounce-band at two to three years. After that time, he said, the pressure of the sun's rays would begin to force the tiny needles down into the atmosphere. Here their speed—about 13,000 miles an hour—would cause them to burn up from friction with the air.

Former Newspaper Boy Says Children Are Too Coddled

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst NEW YORK (AP)—Two former newspaperboys now in the Cabinet have taken a look at today's youngest generation and done some head shaking: Too much coddling of children, too little parental discipline, too little urging of offsprings to get gainful jobs perhaps because allowances are higher these days.

But a publisher who has business relations with some 32,000 youngsters across the land comes to the kids' defense. They're as good as ever, he says, at least in the smaller towns where his publication largely is distributed.

Saturday is Newspaperboy Day. So a lot of famous former newspaperboys may be looking over the shoulders of the two Cabinet members: Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges and Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Abraham A. Ribicoff.

LIKE ON LIST

Some in the list are former Presidents Hoover, Eisenhower and Truman, Chief Justice Warren, Gen. Gruenther, Sens. Sparkman, Mundt and Yarborough; Jack Dempsey and Walt Disney—to name only a few.

Hodges says today's parents aren't using discipline to teach children the joys and rewards of work. He fears this is helping to make the nation soft.

Ribicoff also decries coddling and lays a lot of the blame to restrictive laws on hiring youngsters. But he sees a growing feeling against teaching of self-respect and a sense of responsibility through work.

The publisher who thinks neither the boys nor the parents, especially in the multitude of smaller cities, are that bad is George R. Lamade of Williamsport, Pa. His newspaper, Grit, is billed as a national publication devoting itself to small-town America.

Prefers Jail In U.S. Than Life In Other Lands

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — Irvin C. Scarbeck, accused of passing secret documents to Polish Communist agents, said in a signed confession "prison in the United States would be more acceptable to me than a happy life in any other country."

The confession by Scarbeck, former second secretary in the American Embassy in Warsaw, was read Friday to a federal court jury. It was the third signed confession the jury has heard since Scarbeck's trial began three weeks ago.

The jury also has heard a 10-hour tape recording of an interrogation of Scarbeck by a State Department security officer.

Scarbeck, 41, is accused of giving the secret documents to the Poles after they blackmailed him over an affair with a Polish girl.

DEFENSE OPENS MONDAY

Prosecutor Paul Vincent rested the government's case after introducing statements Scarbeck signed during three days of questioning by FBI agents in Washington last June. The defense, which opens its case Monday, again objected that the statements were not proper evidence. Scarbeck's statement said he turned over one document to the agents, a report of Ambassador Jacob Beam on Polish-American relations, and memorized bits of others in the embassy's reading file and repeated them orally to the Poles, known to him only as George and Zbigniew.

"I wish to emphasize that I lied to them, gave evasive answers, garbled or incorrect information," he said. He said it never entered his mind to give them "anything that would have actual and lasting effect on the security of the United States."

AWAITS PENALTY

Scarbeck said in the FBI statement, "I am ready to accept any and all punishment without demur."

Scarbeck said he could only request consideration of the fact that he acted under the "threat of exposure and disgrace of my family" and a threat of imprisonment for "one I cared for very deeply," his 22-year-old Polish mistress, Ursula Maria Discher.

Scarbeck's wife, Karen, 37, who has remained loyal to him, was in court as she has been since the trial began. They have three small children.

Scarbeck faces a maximum possible penalty of 33 years in jail and a fine of $32,000.

CHARGE IS DROPPED

An assault and battery charge against George M. Penn Jr., 215 W. High St., was dropped by his wife, Mrs. Patricia N. Penn, after a hearing before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Friday evening. Costs were paid by the defendant.

WED BY JUSTICE

Allen E. Eisenberger, 24, Harrisburg, and Helen M. Schue, 29, Carlisle R. 1, were married by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Friday in the justice's office.

Urges Extra Care in Dry Forests

Forester William Vanidestine of District 1 has asked motorists and hunters to be especially careful as the forests of the area are "very dry."

Vanidestine said this is the season when many people like to drive through the country to see the changing foliage. He asked all motorists to be extremely careful and extinguish cigarettes in the car ash tray and not throw the remains out windows, where they may start a fire.

The forester also cautioned hunters to be careful with matches, cigarettes and fires they have in camps.

Vanidestine reported only one small fire in the past week. He said about 4,500 square feet of trees were destroyed near Tomstown, between Mt. Alto and Waynesboro, on Wednesday night. Origin of the fire was not determined.

Learn More About Seafood Preparation

Members of the Adams County Homemakers groups will learn more this winter about how to make tasty dishes from fish.

On Friday 22 leaders of the homemakers groups met at the Cashtown Community Hall for a course on how to prepare sea food taught by County Extension Home Economist Mrs. Helen Tunison. In turn the leaders will teach the subject to the members of their groups. Most of the instruction was on preparation of various dishes from low cost, easily available haddock, halibut, flounder and cod.

The leaders attending the course were Mrs. Wade Brown and Mrs. Theron Bair of the Mason-Dixon Homemakers group; Mrs. Margaret Weaver and Mrs. John K. Lott, Harrisburg Road; Mrs. Lester Taylor and Mrs. Clair Winand, Butler Twp.; Mrs. Clarence Ford and Mrs. Mary Almonney, New Chester; Mrs. Roland Kime and Mrs. Richard Cline, Gettysburg; Mrs. Melvin Nace Sr., Conewago; Mrs. Paul Redcar, Mrs. Clyde Andrew and Mrs. C. Bryan, Cashtown; Mrs. William Ayre and Mrs. George Gilbert, Marsh Creek; Mrs. Donald Lady and Mrs. Robert Volland, Heidlersburg; Mrs. Robert Gitt and Mrs. Clyde Crouse, Frogtown, and Mrs. William J. Lippy and Mrs. Walter Crouse, Littlestown.

Offer Seedlings To "Cooperators"

The Adams County Soil Conservation District today announced that the Glatfelter Pulp Wood Co., of Spring Grove, will again provide evergreen seedlings to cooperators in the district wishing the small trees. During the last four years of the program the concern has provided 123,300 seedlings to 39 landowners in the county through the Soil Conservation District. The seedlings, purchased by the company from the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Water nurseries, are made available without any restriction from the company but are subject to the state limitations prohibiting use of the trees for Christmas trees, ornamental or windbreak plantings. The local district office in the Adams Electric Cooperative building has application blanks for the trees.

EISENHOWER GIVEN AWARD

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower recalled Friday night the death of his first son from scarlet fever "only a year or two before research reduced that disease to a childhood sickness."

Eisenhower spoke at the annual Humanitarian Award dinner of the Cerebral Palsy Association of New York. He was presented with the group's annual award in recognition of "a lifetime of service to mankind."

Speaking of the son's death, he said: "Although it happened 44 or 45 years ago, it is just as vivid in our memory as it was then."

At his side was Mrs. Eisenhower, who was given a silver picture frame in recognition of her interest in the handicapped.

Eisenhower said no tax dollar administered by the government can approach the benefits provided by donations to a cause. "Any private dollar is worth four government dollars," he said.

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Public demonstrations against dictator Rafael Trujillo's heirs showed no signs of subsiding Friday despite many arrests in all major cities. Reports from San Francisco de Macoris said 35 persons were jailed Thursday after riots in which 15 were injured.

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Roland Butler, 74, general press representative for the Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey Circus for 25 years, died Friday. He was born in Whelan, Mass.

"WALKING CLOSE TO GOD"

Tender is the feeling . . . gathered in when I . . . take a long-sought journey . . . 'neath an azure sky . . . out to God's own garden . . . 'neath majestic trees . . . where the world seems brighter . . . and my heart's at ease . . . quiet save for songbirds . . . rapturous to hear . . . makes me think that Heaven . . . lingers very near . . . oh the wonder of it all . . . God is truly kind . . . to give mankind treasures . . . affording peace of mind . . . though I travel single . . . in this enchanted zone . . . something seems to tell me . . . I am not alone . . . for the tender feeling . . . paving the path I trod . . . could only come to being . . . walking close to God.

came when youths sealed off streets in a two-square-block area which they called the "free territory of the Dominican Republic." Some were seen leading rooftops with stones and metal objects.

SHOUT "LIBERTY"
Four companies of police moved in later after several hundred demonstrators marched down a main street shouting "liberty! liberty!"

A car carrying Ernesto Rubirosa, vice president of the ruling Dominican party, was stoned and sped away.

A young woman carrying a child was among at least 20 bleeding and weeping injured led from the scene. Police claimed the woman was hit by a rock.

There were reports that at least three members of the Trujillo family—all brothers of the late dictator—may leave the Dominican Republic this weekend. The departure of the family has been demanded by opposition factions before they will negotiate with President Joaquin Balaguer on his proposal for a coalition government.

RAFAEL REMAINS

The Trujillos headed for exile were identified as Gens. Hector, Jose Arizmendi and Pedro Trujillo. Official sources would neither confirm nor deny the reports. Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr., the dictator's son and chief of the armed forces has declared his determination to remain here.

The army has not put in a known appearance in the five-day-old riots. Opposition sources claim, however, that soldiers have been pressed into riot service disguised as police.

Perkins, Loi Meet

For Junior Crown

MILAN (AP) — Champion Duilio Loi of Italy and challenger Eddie Perkins of Chicago tangled tonight for the world junior welterweight crown.

But without yet stepping into the ring for their scheduled 15-round match, they are practically killing each other with kindness. Each feels he will win, though the latest odds give the edge to Loi. Loi, 32, considered the best fighter Italy ever had, said he felt edgy.

Although "confident of winning," he said the 24-year-old American Negro "has shown too much consideration for me, as a fighter and as a man."

Perkins accepted without a word of protest two postponements of the fight asked by Loi, ailing the first time from a sprained arm and the second from an intestinal disturbance.

COUNCILLOR CITES FUTURE OF EDUCATION

William Miller guidance councillor at New Oxford High School, outlined a program of education in the United States, and in Pennsylvania in particular, at a meeting of the Democratic Men's Club of Adams County Thursday evening in the Adams Electric Cooperative offices. Approximately 200 persons attended, it was announced by J. C. Hammond, secretary.

Miller said, "The first public school in the United States was established in Massachusetts, and it was not until many years later that education in Pennsylvania showed appreciable progress. Several factors combined to impede progress not the least of which was the language barrier."

NEED U.S. FINANCES

"Many attempts were made to establish high schools academies and universities, most of which failed. And it was not until 1834 that Pennsylvania had a real break-through in education. However, insofar as control of schools was concerned, it was strictly on a local basis. Pennsylvania's greatest advance in the field of education has been made during the past two decades."

Speaking of financing education, Miller said "we have now reached the pinnacle in taxation and bonded indebtedness on the local level. There is only one way to prevent deterioration and insure continued and improved progress in education and that is through the medium of federal assistance. There appears to be no other satisfactory way — and aid should be forthcoming immediately."

Democratic candidates for office in the November elections were present.

Match Is Entered In $100,000 Race

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — Francois Dupre's Match was added today to the list of entries in the $100,000 Washington, D.C., International at Laurel race course Nov. 11.

Match becomes the second French three-year-old placed in the field for the mile and one half grass classic Count G. D'Ornano accepted a bid to enter Misti.

The addition of Match brings the International field to five horses, and other entries are expected to be added within the next few days. Thoroughbreds whose owners have already accepted include Kelso of America; High Perch of England, and Wonderboy of Denmark.

A reception was held in the Bonneauville Fire Hall. For their wedding trip of unannounced destination, the bride chose a gold skirt and plaid jacket with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Upon their return they will reside at 122 Main St., McSherrystown.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Delone Catholic High School and is employed in the Department of Labor, Washington, D. C. The groom is a 1959 graduate of the same school, attended Millersville State College and is presently employed by Russell G. Neiderer, a mason contractor, Hanover.

Jessen, Suggs Lead Civitan Golf Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Ruth Jessen and Louise Suggs led the way into the second round of the $7,500 Civitan Open Golf Tournament today but they were only one stroke ahead of steady Marilyn Smith.

Miss Jessen was a stroke under the women's record for the back nine as she shot a 2-under-par 38-31-69 in the opening round Friday while Miss Suggs banged birdies on four holes to equal Miss Jessen's round.

The day's only other subpar shooter was Miss Smith who did a 70, hitting 17 greens. She sank a four-foot birdie putt on 17 for her one-under-par.

Alone at 72 was Mary Lena Faulk while Barbara Romack and Kathy Whitworth were tied for fifth with 73s.

FAVORS U. S. IN AMERICA CUP

MONTERREY, Mexico (AP)—"We should win but it won't be easy—it could be very close."

This was the wary outlook of Captain Charley Cox as he sent a hand-picked U. S. amateur golf team against Canada and Mexico today in the sixth renewal of the Americas Cup competition.

"The Canadians have a stronger team than the one we barely beat by a point and a half at Ottawa last year," the slender former champion from Oklahoma City said. "Mexico has a young, aggressive team which has been practicing here for more than a week. We had only two days' practice and I wish we could have had more."

Cox benched himself for the opening team matches over the picturesque 7,063-yard, par 72 Club Campestre course, which nestles in the elbow of a mountain chain. He planned to play in one of the afternoon singles matches.

G-BURG POSTS 4TH SOCCER VICTORY 4-3

Rick Burchell tabbed three goals, including the tie-breaker in the final quarter, to give the Gettysburg College soccer team a 4-3 victory over Bucknell here Friday afternoon for its fourth triumph in five starts.

At the end of three periods the score was tied 3-3 but in the last quarter Burchell tallied his third and winning goal with 17 minutes of play gone.

Next Wednesday the Bullets travel to Baltimore to meet Johns Hopkins.

The lineups:

Gettysburg	Pos.	Bucknell
Cox	G	Levine
Sturges	RB	Steinger
Gerkin	LB	Bushnell

California Coast Rocked By Quakes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A series of earthquakes rattled Southern California from Los Angeles to San Diego Friday, but no one was injured and no serious damage was reported.

The first shock at 11:50 a.m., was felt strongly in Orange County and caused minor damage to new construction projects and market merchandise, which rolled off shelves.

The tremor also caused the City Hall tower in downtown Los Angeles to sway slightly.

Another heavy shock was felt at 2:35 p.m. It was the last of many recorded during the day by Dr. Charles Richter head of the seismology laboratory in Pasadena.

Dr. Richter described the quakes as "deep seated" and "exciting but not very damaging."

The strongest of the shocks, the one at 11:50 a.m., was rated at 4.5 on the Richter scale. The San Francisco quake in 1906 was rated at 8.3.

DIANE L. COX WINS BEAUTY TITLE FRIDAY

By RAYMOND HOLBROOK
DALLAS (AP) — A 16-year-old Virginia beauty who wants to be a diplomat was crowned Miss Teen-age America Friday night.

Diane Lynn Cox of Richmond won the title over 101 other contestants from 36 states in a week of judging on the basis of personality, appearance, intelligence and talent. The contest had no bathing suit division.

Diane has blue eyes, brown hair, weighs 118 pounds and stands 5-foot-5. This was the first beauty contest she had ever entered, but winning it was not her first high honor. She was the first girl to be president of the student body at George Wythe High School in Richmond, where she is a senior, maintains an "A" average in her studies.

GOOD EDUCATION

"I am surprised, overwhelmed and delighted," she said in her newest honor. "I want to take advantage of this great opportunity to help impress other teens with the necessity of good education and high, sincere ideals. My ambition is to be a part of the diplomatic corps, to serve my country and help bring understanding and peace in the world."

Diane is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Cox of Richmond. Her father is a service station manager and builder.

Other finalists were Cheryl Sweeten of Denver, Colo., whose dramatic sketches won the Miss Teen-age talent award; Cheryl Marie Black of Galveston, Tex.; Deborah Irene Bryant of Kansas City, Mo.; Sharon Sue Grinage of Modesto, Calif.; Donna Lee Spitz of Sacramento, Calif.; and Janice Lynne Zoch of Lake Charles, La.

An estimated 100,000 girls, ranging in age from 13 through 17, participated in preliminary contests.

RAGUSA, Sicily (AP) — A tornado cut a swath through the countryside near Ragusa Thursday night, killing at least seven persons. The cone of wind, a rarity in Italy and its islands, whirled in from the Mediterranean and moved through a sparsely settled farm area.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A man was burned to death and two children and a woman were injured early today in a fire that burned out the interior of a home in nearby North Versailles Twp.

Walter Casey, 31, died in the flames.

His mother, Kathleen, 51, was admitted to Braddock Hospital suffering from smoke inhalation.

Two children, Harry, 13, and Brenda, 14, were treated at the hospital for smoke inhalation.

Cause of the blaze in the three-story frame home was not learned immediately.

MAY EXECUTE SEVERAL TOP COMMUNISTS

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Associated Press News Analyst
BERLIN (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev's heavy propaganda artillery is zeroing in on his enemies. The events at the Soviet Communist party congress in Moscow suggest he is winning his struggle and setting the scene for announcement of a house-cleaning.

It seems likely, in fact, that the purge already is well under way. Probably it was started well in advance of the 22nd party congress, at least at the lower levels.

But Khrushchev wants and apparently needs total victory. This means at a minimum the expulsion from the Communist party of those he labeled anti-party in 1957.

The congress can provide the machinery for Khrushchev's purposes.

HAVE NEW IDEAS

Awaiting formal approval are some new ideas concerning the statutes by which the Communist party is supposed to govern itself. The changes may involve new methods for expelling and punishing members who have fallen into disgrace. There are indications that new sins will be invented, such as failure to show sufficient devotion to the Communist cause or lack of faithfulness to the principle of collective leadership.

If Khrushchev has won, heads will roll. It will mean expulsion from the party and possibly worse for former Premier Georgi Malenkov, for Lazar Kaganovich, the one-time iron commissar of the Ukraine and a Stalin stalwart, for old former Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, for former Premier Nikolai Bulganin and many others.

OUTSIDE SHOCKS

There may be shocks outside the U.S.S.R., too. Those Communists in parties abroad, particularly in the satellite nations, who have failed to show sufficient devotion to Khrushchev's free-wheeling interpretation of Marxism-Leninism may be slated for the political ax.

A new party declaration—one is expected from this congress—could well cover that phase of the purge, which could bring down such men as Walter Ulbricht, the Stalinist boss of East Germany, and others of his stamp.

Kennedy Hopes To Do Some Sailing

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—President Kennedy hoped for a break in the New England weather today so he could get in some cruising on Narragansett Bay.

The presidential yacht Honey Fitz awaited Kennedy's call.

The Honey Fitz had carried the President from Quonset Naval Air Station to his weekend home—Hammersmith Farm—following his arrival late Friday from Washington.

The weather forecast was for cloudy skies and crisp autumn winds, not usually a deterrent to Kennedy's love of the sea.

At Hammersmith Farm, the home of Mrs. Kennedy's stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, the President planned to get in a weekend of rest and relaxation. There were no formal appointments on his schedule.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviets have detonated another big nuclear explosion in the atmosphere.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced the blast took place Friday in the vicinity of Novaya Zemlya, the Soviet's arctic testing grounds, and had a yield of several megatons—equivalent to the explosive force of several million tons of TNT.

It was the 21st explosion announced by the AEC in the current Soviet test series. President Kennedy has indicated that additional Soviet tests have been detected but not announced.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Emmett E. Shields, 58, of Los Angeles, Calif., a member of the U.S. aid mission to Indonesia, died Friday. He was a native of Oregon City, Ore.

Half A Million Men Face Each Other Across Korean Line Near 38th Parallel

Editor's Note: The shooting ended in 1953 but Korea still is officially in a state of war. Ted Gress, city editor of the Lebanon (Pa.) Daily News, currently is on tour of the area. In the following story he gives his first-hand impressions—including an account of a U.N. and North Korean armistice commission meeting.

By TED GRESS
Lebanon (Pa.) Daily News
PANMUNJON, Korea (AP) — (By Mail)—Long forgotten by a world pre-occupied with other troubles, Korea today continues as an armed camp.

The United States forces on this rugged peninsula number approximately 50,000. The Republic of Korea has nearly a hundred thousand men under arms.

These United Nations troops, which include small elements of Turkish and Thai soldiers, are in daily "eye-ball to eye-ball" contact with the North Korean communists.

They face each other across the demilitarized zone (DMZ) which stretches 132 miles from coast to coast near the 38th Parallel.

300,000 IN MONTH
Intelligence reports, American Army sources here say, indicate the North Koreans have in excess of 300,000 men on their side of the DMZ.

Posing as a major threat, however, are the Chinese Communists who have six field groups ready to move forward, with 10 more in reserve.

As the world spotlight turns on Berlin, Laos, South Viet Nam and the Congo, it is generally forgotten that although the shooting ended here in 1953, Korea is still officially in a state of war.

The armistice agreement has not been superseded by a peace treaty.

Even the tiny village of Panmunjon, where the armistice was signed ending 37 months of bitter fighting, is fading from memory.

3,000 MEETINGS
Yet six days a week, formal meetings still are held here with the North Korean Reds. The 3,000th such session was held Oct. 16.

True, most of the meetings are routine, but a rigid procedure is followed. The setting is simple. The air charged with electricity. Trouble can flare at any minute as it did last spring. It started when a Communist spit in an American soldier's face. He was promptly flattened with a hook to the chin. It ended when an American officer grabbed a North Korean officer who was trying to draw a gun and tossed him through a windshield of a car.

ROUTINE SESSION
The atmosphere has been a little better since then, but one can never be sure.

The meeting I attended was routine.

Major William J. Heaser, Jr., an American Army officer, represented the United States Command. He briefed me in his office before the session started.

Promptly at noon he entered the one-story building by the southern entrance. He was accompanied by a Korean interpreter and a Navy enlisted man who acted as stenographer.

Only active participants are permitted in the conference room, so I took up a position on a small platform outside a window.

Three North Korean officers entered by the north door.

All sat down at a long table covered with heavy green cloth. The dividing line which runs through the center of the Demilitarized Zone also runs through the center of the table.

Heaser presented two pages of reports. The North Koreans presented the same.

There was an air of icy formality on both sides.

The session ended and as the Communists left the building they slammed the door so hard it had sounded like a cannon shot.

Out here they call this freedom's frontier. And backing up Heaser and his handpicked joint security forces are some of the finest combat troops in the American Army. They are trained to razor-sharp perfection in the deadly arts of war.

Some of the forward units, such as the first cavalry Division and the 7th Infantry Division work around the clock patrolling and training.

These may be forgotten men but they haven't forgotten why they are here.

TEN YEARS AGO

Badly Burned Blast Victim Dies Saturday: Carroll L. Eckard, 26, Taneytown, one of three men burned in a gas explosion Friday morning at the plant of the Town and Country Gas service, near Taneytown, died Saturday afternoon at 1:10 o'clock at the Warner hospital. Last Friday was Eckard's birthday.
Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, said death was due to first, second and third degree burns of the face and upper body.
Edward Sauble, 19, Westminster, was reported to be in good condition at the hospital today. James Hayes, 26, Emmitsburg, was treated at the hospital for less serious burns.

Third Project Completed On Water System: The third project in the $109,000 improvement program of the local water system has been completed, Manager John H. Long announced today. The current project consisted of using gunnite, concrete set under pressure, to put a two-inch concrete lining over a reinforced wire screen inside the two settling basins at the water works along Marsh Creek. The two basins hold 50,000 gallons of water and allow the sediment normally in Marsh Creek to settle before the water is pumped inside the water works for treatment.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Harry G. Troxell, Birmingham, Mich., left today for their home after a visit of ten days with Lt. Troxell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Troxell, East Broadway. Lt. Troxell will report to Lackland AFB in the near future.

Truck Carrying 22,000 Pounds Of TNT Runs Off Bonneville Road, Upsets; Cargo Does Not Explode: Residents of Bonneville hastily donned coats over their night clothing early this morning and left their homes, when a tractor-trailer carrying 22,000 pounds of TNT missed the curve in the highway at the western part of the village, ran off the north side of the road, and turned over in a field after shearing off two utility poles. The cargo did not explode.

Part of the roof of the trailer carrying the high explosive, capable, if it went off, of obliterating all of Bonneville and shaking homes in Gettysburg and other nearby places, was bulged, but none of the TNT, packed in cases, spilled from the load. Some of it oozed from the boxes in which it was packed.

E. P. Miller, One Of Furniture Factory Founders And Former Associate Judge, Dies At 89: Edward P. Miller, 89, one of the founders of the Gettysburg Furniture factory, president of the Hanover Cabinet company, and former Adams County associate judge, died this morning at 12:15 o'clock at his home, 150 York Street, of infirmities of age.
Born near York, a son of the late Henry and Rebecca Gladfelter Miller, he moved to Gettysburg 45 years ago. As a young man he resided in Abbottstown and was postmaster and operated a general store there.

Wedding: Joan Naomi Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn T. Grant, Carlisle, became the bride of Cpl. John Nelson Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Weber, Biglerville, in a candlelight service at First Lutheran Church, Carlisle, Tuesday. Rev. Dr. Harry L. Saul officiated and the bride was given in marriage by her father. Caroline Nolen, organist, played the wedding music.
Phyllis Davis, Baltimore, was the maid of honor and only attendant. Cpl. William Fickes, Newville, was best man.

BIOGRAPHY

There is no story so full of all that life is as the life of a human being.
History is but collected stories of men and women who did their separate jobs.
When we read of bravery and the exhibition of fine strength by others, we are in turn inspired. Thought and action, each in turn, melt into the circle of time which softens every harsh edge of life.
If we couldn't learn that the virtues of life paid so well, then we would all too often fall into the cheap and worthless offerings of those who prey upon all virtue.
But biography explains, illumines and marks out paths that any one of us may profit from.
And where that man or woman has been a stirring figure in a troubled period, how interesting and helpful and thrilling to read of his or her every move.
Whether writer, statesman, reformer, artist or merchant, there is that same fascination to facts and incidents that crowd about that busy life. Then there is the background for every thought or action on the part of that one who forms the kernel of the story.
I find my interest always increased after I have read the life of my favorite writer, artist or hero.
You have to know the source of an idea or thought before you can honestly appraise it.
When I learned of the long suffering and great courage of W. H. Hudson, the naturalist, I took new interest in his love of all beauty and animal life.
In times of particular discouragement, get hold of a good biography and read it. And if you read between the lines, life is quite sure to soften much for you.

Just Folks
FAIR DEALING
Believe in his promise until he breaks it;
Believe him honest until he lies;
Honor his name until he makes it;
A symbol for conduct which men despise.
Believe him fair till he deals unfairly;
He has a right till he proves untrue;
To be met as a man who will meet you squarely;
He should be judged as he deals with you.
Give him your faith until it is shaken;
Trust him until he betrays your trust;
Take his word as you'd have yours taken;
Let your dealings with him be just.
Give him credit for fair endeavor;
Make him your friend till he proves untrue;
He may be worthy your trust forever,
Brand him not till he's false to you.

GUIDANCE CLASSES TOO
It is understood that, when a child reaches adolescence, he begins to question life, he begins to form ideas and principles of his own, and he looks toward the future when he will become an independent adult. He is suffering from growing pains—both physically and emotionally. It is the purpose of the "Human Relations" classes to help the adolescent better understand and cope with these growing pains and to give him a background of knowledge which will give him a feeling of security in his life as an adult and thereby help him to become a better citizen. It is believed that a person must first be able to understand himself and his goals before he can begin to understand others and become contributing members of our American democracy.
In addition to the five "Human Relations" classes which meet four days a week, there are also seven Guidance classes which meet only once a week. The goals and purposes in the Guidance classes are the same as those in the "Human Relations" classes. "HUMAN RELATIONS"
COURSE AT GHS

The Gettysburg High School has provided a new course for its Ninth Grade this year. This course has been entitled "Human Relations" since it deals with matters concerning life, and living of life, and an individual's responsible part in dealing with other people and adjusting to life.

The textbook is entitled "Points for Decision." The title is a clue as to just what the classes in "Human Relations" might be like. The following are some "points for decision" which are discussed by the students in class:

Is an I.Q. as important as most people think it is?
Why aren't students told their I.Q.'s?

What are the good and bad sides of belonging to a crowd?

What does it mean to be popular?

What does success mean?

Is an introverted person necessarily undesirable?

What is etiquette and what is its basic rule?

When does a person become an adult?

What must be done to develop good understanding between parents and children?

OTHER TOPICS COMING UP

There are some of the questions which have already been discussed by the students.

In the future, questions will be discussed concerning relations at home, boy-girl relationships, choosing a vocation, learning about jobs, health, in-school problems, getting and holding a job, continuing education after high school, and entering the Armed Forces.

Of course, it is understood that not all facts concerning the problems of life are true or false, or right and wrong. Therefore, test questions are composed mostly upon general principles rather than specific facts and definitions.

Says Doctor More Important In TB

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The job of the general doctor is becoming more and more important in the treatment of tuberculosis, asserts a Pennsylvania health official.

In an address Thursday at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, Dr. Harold E. Coder, director of the Tuberculosis Division of the State Health Department, said:

"The role of the general physician in tuberculosis assumes increasing importance as institutional care has been shortened and as drug therapy is being continued after patients are returned to their homes."

Dr. Coder added, "It is likewise important that every physician become familiar with the basic principles of tuberculosis control if we expect to eradicate this disease by 1970."

The doctor pointed out the states operates four tuberculosis hospitals and 82 clinics. He said 8,000 cases are currently under supervision or treatment by the state.

Warriors, Bolts Battle To 25-25 Stalemate In Thrill-Packed Contest

Littlestown and Gettysburg High School battled to a thrilling 25-25 Friday evening at Gettysburg in one of the most exciting games in years for the home team.

A light drizzle started falling shortly before game time but that failed to dampen anybody's spirits, especially the ball players. Both squads played to the utmost, right down to the final gun.

Long gainers from passes and runs were in abundance with Jim McClellan's 80-yard kickoff return for a touchdown probably the most exciting. His fine run came just after Littlestown had tied the score 19-19 about midway in the final quarter.

The Warriors missed a golden opportunity following Paul Plank's quick kick early in the game which rolled to Littlestown's 21. On the second Bolt play from scrimmage with a heavy downpour making things difficult, a Littlestown back fumbled and Plank recovered on the 13. Three running plays lost two yards and Duane's fourth down pass to Joe Riley fell incomplete.

Littlestown moved out in front with 3:15 left in the first quarter when halfback Dick Motter capped a 10-play, 87-yard drive with a 30-yard burst that started out over right tackle and ended about a yard over the goal with McClellan trying desperately to make the save. Included in the series was a 34-yard scamper around right end by shifty halfback Ted Bortner and an important three-yard gain by Bortner on a fourth down attempt. Motter's pass to Strevig failed for the point.

MCCLELLAN GOES 66

On the first play from scrimmage following the score, Jim McClellan bolted off right tackle on a quick opener, eluded two potential tacklers, cut back to his left sideline, and sped 66 yards untouched to give Gettysburg its first six points. The extra point kick attempt was blocked.

The second quarter was strictly defensive play, with the ball in Littlestown territory the whole time except for one play. Gettysburg had a good opportunity when Dick Utz drove for 10 yards to what might have been a first down at the Bolts' 23 but the Warriors' defense detected offside on the play, and later were forced to punt.

BORTNER TALLIES

Littlestown took the kickoff, and with Bortner and Motter lugging the pigskin, the Thunderbolts scored in six plays. An inside reverse with Bortner carrying over the middle netted 17 yards, and following a Motter plunge, Bortner carried again on the same reverse play. This time he broke into clear field at about the 30, but was hauled down from behind by Joe Riley and Ron Doaks on the 12. A five-yard penalty and two Bortner carries produced the score. Motter drove over the middle for an important extra point to make the score 13-6.

The Warriors were not to be denied however, as they came storming back 68 yards in eight plays to knot the count. Using a counter play very effectively, Gettysburg got two quick first downs and then Dick Utz broke loose off right guard on a quick opener for a 34-yard gallop to the Bolts' 13. McClellan bulldozed his way to the four, Utz carried to the one, and then the latter plunged off right guard for the TD. Paul Plank kicked the point to knot the count.

Littlestown fumbled the kickoff at the 15 and after a first down was forced to punt. Motter, the best bolt Gettysburg has seen all year, got off a splendid 45-yard job which was returned nicely along the sideline by McClellan to the Bolts' 47. Gettysburg got a quick first down and added another on quarterback Tom Duane's sneak which netted 15 yards when he kept driving with two defenders hanging on.

GHS GETS LEAD

As play moved into the final stanza, Duane worked the belly option series nicely with McClellan getting the safety valve toss. Two good blocks sent him on his way for the touchdown that put Gettysburg in the lead for the first time. Again the kick was blocked. Then it was Littlestown's turn. A mixup in the Warrior backfield resulted in a fumble which Ron Sponseller recovered. The Bolts took to the air. Motter, following a chase, passed to Bill Woodward for three yards. A screen pass fell incomplete and Doaks made a jarring tackle on Woodward for no gain. With six minutes to go and trailing by six points, Motter went back in punt formation. The right side of Gettysburg's line was sucked in and, as a result, Motter ended up on the eight-yard-line where Bob Beeler halted his progress.

In two plays Motter, the do-it-all tailback, scored over right tackle to tie the score again. On the important point try, Sophomore Dan Heagy wrapped Bud Ecker short of the white stripe.

WHOLE WAY ON KO

The Littlestown fans were still buzzing when McClellan took the following kickoff in full stride about his 20, cut to the right and danced up the sideline, eluding two Bolt gridders at the 50, then cut back to the center of the field and broke out in the open. There was no catching McClellan from behind Friday night. Plank failed again when his kick fell far short on the attempt.

Only about five minutes remained in the game. Motter returned the kickoff to his 34 and a personal foul 15-yard penalty put Gettysburg back to their own 49. On the next play, the Bolts fumbled, a whistle blew and it looked like the Warriors had the ball. But the elusive pigskin squirmed out of a big pile and a Littlestown player picked it up. This may have been the decisive factor in the outcome of the game. There followed a 19-yard pass in the left flat from Woodward to Motter which gained a first down on the Warriors' 26. On the next play, defensive end Beeler was trapped, Motter cut to his right side, picked up his interference nicely, and romped the final 26 easy yards to tie the count. Littlestown, needing the point for a possible victory, again tried a plunge but Ed Kootz was halted about three feet short on a off-tackle slant.

There was still 2:50 left in the game. Gettysburg tried a reverse on the kickoff which put them on their 34. Duane, following two ground plays, got 11 yards on another sneak. Here Gettysburg threw its first pass of the second half. The intended receiver somehow stumbled and lanky end John Strevig intercepted and returned to his 31. On the following play, Dick Motter attempted a pass to Strevig but Tom Duane intercepted at the 50. With less than 90 seconds to play, the Warriors still had a time out left. Duane sent McClellan off guard for two yards. The following play saw Duane get good protection and flip to Dick Utz alone in the right flat. He had clear sailing but was nabbed after an 18-yard gain at the 23. The final play saw Duane just miss the outstretched hands of end Tom Kuykendall who had eluded the defender in the right end zone.

Statistics show that McClellan personally accounted for 203 yards for Gettysburg on 13 carries. This included touchdown runs of 66, 80 and 23 yards. Motter rushed for 135 yards for the Bolts, threw four completed passes for 36 yards, received one pass for 19 yards and did some fine punting. Bortner rushed for 90 yards on 13 carries.

It would be hard to single out outstanding players but John Strevig, Dick Motter, Ron Sponseller, Ted Bortner and Frank Basehoar all played a fine game for Littlestown. For Gettysburg, Bob Beeler did a good job of turning in end sweeps, Duane called an exceptionally fine game, and Utz and McClellan kept Littlestown on its heels all night long. Dan Heagy, sophomore center, who played a corner linebacker position, also looked greatly improved. Next Saturday afternoon Littlestown will visit Susquehanna while Gettysburg will be entertained by Waynesboro in the evening at 8 o'clock.

The lineups:

NAVY WALLOPS DETROIT; G. W. WINS IN ROUT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With Detroit again thwarted in its bid to gain national recognition, the college football focus Saturday centered on Notre Dame's attempt to return to the top of the heap against mighty Michigan State.

Navy, after blowing a 13-0 lead, surged from behind a 19-16 third period deficit with three quick touchdowns and spoiled Detroit's unbeaten season 37-19 in the top game Friday night.

The Titans, hampered by first period jitters, relied on the passing arm of Jerry Gross, one of the nation's top college quarterbacks, to forge their third period lead.

Gross, who entered the game No. 2 among the nation's total offense leaders, hit Larry Vargo with strikes of 6, 10 and 26 yards to wipe out Navy's early lead.

DRUMMOND STARS

Dick Drummond scored four touchdowns, including an 86-yard kickoff return, to spark George Washington to a 49-12 rout of William and Mary in the only other major game.

The effort of Notre Dame, unbeaten in three and ranked fifth in the nation, to regain its former stature against top-ranked Michigan State claimed most of the attention today.

Michigan State, which gained the top spot off its victory over Michigan last week, is unbeaten and holds the favorite's role.

Four Southeastern Conference battles and the game that may produce the Southwest Conference champion head the remainder of the schedule.

OPEN SEC DEFENSE

Mississippi, unhappy at being hotted out of its No. 1 rating, opens serious defense of its Southeastern title against four-touchdown underdog Tulane (1d3). Ole Miss (4-0) fell to the No. 2 spot despite its 47-7 frolic against Houston.

Alabama, ranked fifth in the latest Associated Press poll and unbeaten in four games, goes against Tennessee Georgia Tech (No. 8) takes on Auburn and Louisiana State, tied for the No. 11 spot with Arkansas, plays Kentucky.

Third-ranked Texas sends its powerful offense against Arkansas in a match that could produce the Cotton Bowl host on New Year's day.

Iowa, No. 4, goes against air-minded Wisconsin while seventh-ranked Ohio State tries a good Northwestern team. Colorado, No. 9, and headed for the Big Eight title, goes against Kansas State in a conference game.

Buddy Sullivan Leads Golf Open

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP) — Buddy Sullivan leads the pack as the field heads into the second half of the $20,000 Orange County Open today.

The Yuba City, Calif., golfer was one over par Friday with a 2. He was seven under Thursday with a 64. His 36-hole total of 136 is a stroke better than Jerry Steelmith of Glendale, Calif. Bob Harrison of Pacific Palisades, Calif., and veteran Jim Ferrier of Burbank, Calif., tied for third place with 138s are Cecil Harris of Anaheim, Calif., amateur Dennis Murphy of Huntington Beach, Calif., Tom Nieporie of Bronxville, N.Y., Jack Caput of Longview, Tex., and Billy Maxwell of Dallas.

The defending champion, Billy Casper Jr., of Apple Valley, Calif., shot a 68 Friday for a 140 total.

BULLET FROSH 26-14 VICTIM OF TEMPLE 11

The Gettysburg College Freshman suffered their first setback Friday afternoon when they bowed to the Temple yearling gridders 26-14 at Philadelphia.

Temple, tallying three touchdowns in the opening period, scored early in the game when Fred Fuchs ripped over from the three. His kick for the point failed.

On the following kickoff Ken Snyder, Bullet ace, returned the leather 84 yards to knot the score.

Midway in the quarter Mark Lichtenfeld went over from the one and Ken Ventresca kicked the extra point. Later in the same stanza Ed Wiewinski went over from the four and Ventresca converted to make the score 20-6.

Temple added its fourth and final tally in the third frame when Ventresca raced 22 yards. His kick for the point was no good.

Jack Ridinger's outfit, which failed to display the same form as it did in beating Bucknell, waited until the last play of the game to add its second touchdown.

Bob Rudolph, tackle, intercepted an Owl pass and raced 75 yards into the end zone. Ken Doane carried over for the extra two points.

Next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Bullet yearlings will meet Lehigh here.

BILLS, PATRIOTS BATTLE SUNDAY

BOSTON (AP) — The first weather-forced postponement in the two-year history of the American Football League sends the Boston Patriots against the Buffalo Bills Sunday afternoon.

The Eastern Division clubs originally had been scheduled to meet Friday night at Boston University Field. The postponement was based on the threat posed by tropical storm Gerda.

Boston club President Bill Sullivan conferred with AFL Commissioner Joe Foss and Buffalo owner Ralph Wilson prior to making the announcement. Foss made the decision to postpone the game.

Buffalo is riding the crest of two straight victories over Houston and Dallas behind the direction of its new quarterback tandem of M. C. Reynolds and Warren Rabb.

Boston had managed only a tie in its last three starts despite a scoring output of 88 points.

In other league games Sunday, San Diego is at Oakland, New York is at Denver and Dallas is at Houston.

Coeds Top Beaver In Hockey 4-3

The Gettysburg College girls' field hockey team edged Beaver College here Friday afternoon 4-3 for its third victory against a loss and a tie.

Goals by Mary Ann Test and Miriam Bowers in the second half enabled the Bullettes to overcome a 3-2 half time deficit.

On Monday the local outfit will play at East Stroudsburg.

KEY CONTESTS FOR CHICAGO AND COWBOYS

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago and Dallas face make-or-break contests Sunday, challenging major obstacles in their fight to stay alive in the National Football League title chase.

The Bears take on powerful San Francisco, coleader in the West, while Dallas plays host to defending champion Philadelphia, coleader in the East.

A victory by either the Bears or the Cowboys would put them very much in the running. A loss would leave them only a long-shot chance at the division titles. Each has a 3-2 mark and is tied for third in their divisions.

The Bears, who have won three of their last four, must stop San Francisco's powerful, whirling shotgun offense that features three alternating quarterbacks. San Francisco's defense has allowed only 57 points in five games—second best in the league.

USED GOOD DEFENSE

Dallas will rely on its fine pass defense that has come up with 14 interceptions, to discourage Sonny Jurgensen's tosses to receivers Pete Retzlaf, Tommy McDonald and Bobby Walston.

The Eagles sport a 4-1 mark and are tied with New York for the Eastern lead.

The Giants, fresh of an all-winning four-game road trip, begin a five-game home stand facing a Los Angeles Rams squad that may be better than its 1-4 mark would indicate.

The Rams gained a 17-17 pre-season tie with New York, principally on the fine running of Jon Arnett and Dick Bass.

ALTERNATE QUARTERBACKS

"There's not much difference between 4-1 and 1-4 when you still have nine games to play," New York Coach Al Sherman said.

Each team is expected to alternate quarterbacks. New York has veterans Charlie Conerly and Y. A. Tittle, while the Rams use Zeke Bratkowski and Frank Ryan. Sherman has not yet announced his starter.

Other games pit powerful Green Bay (4-1), coleader in the West, against the Minnesota Vikings (1-4); Cleveland (3-2) is at Pittsburgh (1-4), St. Louis (2-3) at Washington (0-5) and Baltimore (2-3) at Detroit (3-2).

Milking Heifers Require Nutrients For Growth Says County Agent F. S. Zettle

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

When they don't get enough grain, many of two and three-year-old milking heifers will keep milk out of the pail to meet their body needs for growth. It is the old story of self-preservation. In many respects the udder of the cow can be considered a "parasite." That's because producing milk beyond the needs of nursing the young is a man-made or developed characteristic, resulting from years of breeding and selection.

FRANK S. ZETTLE

A well grown-out two-year-old heifer has about 20 per cent of her growth still ahead of her at first freshening. Three-year-olds also have considerable growth ahead of them. Thus, these milking heifers need nutrients for growth, as well as for maintenance of their body and milk production.

Growth needs can best be met by feeding two-year-olds three to four pounds of grain per head daily beyond their production requirements. Three-year-olds should be fed one to two pounds of extra grain. Assuming that a mature cow needs 10 pounds of grain daily to produce 40 pounds of milk, a two-year-old producing the same amount should be fed 14 pounds to meet both growth and production requirements.

INCREASE IN MILK

Feeding heifers for growth as well as production may result in an increase of as much as 2,000 pounds of milk per head in one lactation. This method of feeding also can help overcome stunting of heifers which may have occurred prior to freshening. Above all, it helps prevent production failures during the next lactation.

Many dairymen underfeed milking heifers from fear of "burning them out." But many nutritional authorities have been searching for many years to find a bona fide animal which has been burned-out by proper feeding. To date the search has been in vain. Evidence indicates that heifers which do not equal or exceed their first lactation records in subsequent years often have been considerably underfed. This is especially true for high-producing heifers.

Proper feeding of milking heifers during their lactation and during their first dry period may result in a tremendous increase in production efficiency, as well as improved health and reproduction. Feeding heifers for growth as well as production can help boost income on many dairy farms. If you are not making this a general practice in your herd, start immediately. Use of the Penn State Forage Testing Service can further help in determining grain needs for both heifers and cows.

COMFORT OF PULLETS

Efficient poultry management is necessary, especially when new pullets are being housed. Chickens coming in from the range undergo a complete change of environment. And if these pullets are laying heavily on range and do not get proper care when housed a sudden drop in production may occur.

Pullets usually are caught at night or very early in the morning and immediately housed. To prevent setbacks which can affect health and production the pullets should be handled carefully to avoid injury and unnecessary fright. Avoid crowding in chicken crates, especially if hauled long distances. Make the change in environmental conditions from range to laying quarters as gradual as possible. This particularly refers to ventilation to prevent cold drafts from developing if houses are closed tightly. . . . On the other hand, the quarters should not be drafty either. Keep feed consumption increasing so body weight increases and production holds up. Be sure they are using the feeders and waterers. Grade the pullets according to physical development and maturity toward egg production. Be regular in daily chores so the pullets' needs are met and so they are tamed to the presence of their caretaker.

Both dairy and beef animals are often heavily infested with lice at this time of year. The autumn is the best time to rid cattle of lice . . . especially while the weather is warm. All cattle should be treated before they go into winter quarters, since lice build up on animals placed in close quarters during the winter months.

A spray of dust application of rotenone or pyrethrum can be used on both dairy cows being milked and beef animals. If needed a second application should be made about 14 days after the first treatment.

For lice control on beef and dairy cows not being milked sprays containing either co-ral, lindane, malathion, methoxychlor or toxaphene can be used. Caution—do not use any of these sprays on cows being milked.

SPRAY INSTRUCTIONS

Sprays should be applied with a grower sprayer at 250 to 400 pounds pressure. Use about one gallon of spray material per mature animal. Dust should be applied liberally over the back, shoulders and around the base of the tail. Use a stiff brush and rub the dust well into the hair. Ample dust should be applied above the rear of the udder and on the brisket. One pound of dust should treat three mature animals.

Contact your extension office for the mimeograph on cattle lice control. This gives materials, amounts and methods of application. Some precautions are also given.

There are some 300 varieties of sharks, ranging from two to 60 feet in length. About a dozen are considered particularly dangerous.

MAKE SURVEY OF RESOURCES IN STATE SOILS

Pennsylvania's soil resources are under study in 39 counties by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, State Conservationist Ivan McKeever reported today. He said that over 11 million acres of soil have been surveyed in the Commonwealth. Fourteen counties now have complete soil surveys, he added.

The soil survey provides information used by government, agriculture, business and industry. In the rapidly expanding suburban areas of Pennsylvania the survey is a valuable tool in determining the land areas best suited to industrial, municipal, recreational or agricultural uses, McKeever said.

While the survey is designed primarily for agricultural use, engineers and road builders find it most helpful in their work. Real estate and land appraisers make use of the surveys. Contractors and builders know the value of soil surveys in designing drainage systems and sewage disposal systems.

NEARLY COMPLETE HERE

Soil scientists of the Soil Conservation Service have described over 1,000 different types of soils in the Commonwealth. These soils vary in productive capacity, in water holding capacity, in internal drainage and in uses for building materials and foundation support.

The job of the soil scientists is to locate and plot on a map the respective positions of each of the soils as found in the field. This information, along with the laboratory analysis showing the physical qualities of the soil, is included in a County Soil Survey report.

The Adams County soil survey is nearing completion. Reginald Speir, soil scientist, is tabulating material compiled since the survey was started about 1948 . . . editing current details. All material should be in the hands of the printers in a few months, with the tentative publication date set for late 1962.

DANNY THOMAS DOING QUITE WELL ON TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Danny Thomas, who two months ago was making noises about retiring his TV series after this season, bounced merrily into town for a couple of days. The foreseeable end of "The Danny Thomas Show" was not on his list of favorite subjects.

"All I've ever said was that I wanted to quit on top," he explained. "I wanted to quit while the public and the sponsors still liked us."

Apparently the public still likes Danny's weekly entertainment effort, for the program has continued in its usual top-10 position among the popularity ratings.

GREATER EMINENCE

Danny keeps moving to greater eminence as a sort of entrepreneur of network comedy shows. He has an interest—financial as well as supervisory—in "The Andy Griffith Show," "The Dick Van Dyke Show" and "The Joey Bishop Show." Currently he and his partner, Sheldon Leonard, are busily planning two more series for next season, one a situation comedy called "I and Claudie," and another, "My Is Blocks," about the family life of a patrolman.

Thomas is particularly interested in the patrolman series, which he hopes will develop "a degree of respect for police officers from the young teens."

Meanwhile, he's pleased with the progress being made by Joey Bishop.

"You've got to give him a little time to learn to be an actor, to smile with his eyes," he explained. "Remember, Joey has been a monologist all his professional life, and his style is to be stoic, never to smile at his jokes. But he's got a high likability quotient and he'll make it."

LEAVE CHILDREN

The big new thing in the works on his own show is the introduction as regular members of the cast of Sid Melton and Pat Carroll, playing his agent and wife. "If Sid and Pat can carve themselves a niche on the show—if the public responds to them—then we can go on to stories where we leave the children with them while my wife and I take a trip to Europe or some place."

Recommended weekend viewing

Tonight — "The Defenders," CBS, 8:30-9:30, dramatic series about a father-son team of lawyers and stressing adult themes, this week's being a child custody fight.
Sunday — "Merrily We Roll Along," NBC, 10-11, musical special about automobiles, narrated by Groucho Marx.

Horst Staebert , 19, and Bernhard Heinecke, 21, made the statement to newsmen Friday in telling of their escapes earlier this week the Red barricade dividing Berlin. "How many Vopos (Communist People's Police) would desert if they got the chance," a newsmen asked the two in an interview at a West Berlin refugee camp. "At least 50 per cent," said Horst. The he asked Bernhard, "Wouldn't you say about that?" "Easily," the other replied. The two met for the first time at the camp after scaling the barbed wire and brick barrier in separate flights from their patrol posts along the border.

the UNICEF committee. The following were named to serve on the committee for the PTA sponsor: J. Jabberwolk later this year: Harry D. Feaser, Amos L. Spangler, William C. Karns and Clayton L. Evans.

The board voted $10 to the Penn-Laurel Girl Scout Council. The charter night meeting of the club will be held November 16 in the social room of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, when ladies' night will also be observed. Arrangements are in charge of J. Harvey Pettyjohn, Wilson P. Green and Marvin F. Breighner. The next meeting will be held November 2 at 7 p.m. The program will be in charge of the citizenship and patriotism committee, comprising Paul L. Hollinger, Harry T. Harner and Wilmer Dutler.

Members of the Starr Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church attended the Thursday night meeting at the church in Halloween costume. Mrs. C. Edgar Pfeiffer, president, presided. Plans were discussed to serve the annual banquet of the Loyalty Sunday School Class and the class taught by Samuel J. Snyder in November. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Luther S. Hess Sr., Mrs. Plunkert and Mrs. Feaser. The hostesses for the next meeting, November 30, will be Mrs. George Basehoar, Mrs. Walter Shriver and Mrs. Carrie Hoff.

Joan Crawford Leads Double Life

"The Ziegfeld Touch" "Dupont Show Of The Week"

By M. GRAY

JOAN CRAWFORD is leading a double life.

On one hand, Joan is among the screen's most glamorous veterans and an occasional visitor to television. Her next video assignment is "The Ziegfeld Touch," a musical biography of impresario Florenz Ziegfeld, on the "Du Pont Show of the Week," Sunday, October 29, 10-11 p.m. on NBC-TV.

Her second life is as a successful business woman. She's on the board of directors of one of the reasons.

"For those of us brought up in motion pictures, a live audience is rather frightening. Rosalind Russell and Helen Hayes have been telling me for years that if I ever do a Broadway show, I won't want anything else.

"But, meanwhile, I prefer to keep the audience to a minimum, even when I tape a television show."

As to why she decided to narrate a biography of Florenz Ziegfeld, Joan explained:

via vintage film. In addition, youngsters Barbara Cook, Danny Meehan, Marilyn Lovell and Jack Irwin will recreate some of the hit songs which came from Ziegfeld musicals, including "Whoopie," "A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody," "Mandy" and the 60-year-old "Shine On, Harvest Moon."

What's next on Joan Crawford's schedule?

"I'm going to South America for the company," said Joan, referring again to her second life

Coast-To-Coast On TV

FROM RADIO-TV DIGEST:

Sir Gerard Beadie, until recently head of BBC-TV, says the speedy development of "truly global TV" is urgently needed, for without it "the human race is surely doomed." Only through global TV can peoples of the world see "live" the big events to people of the world — thus get to know each other as human beings with human aspirations for a peaceful existence. There are currently 124 TV stations around the nation showing "Tarzan" . . . The American Federation of Musicians is preparing an all-out pressure drive to have more "live" music on national and local TV and radio programs.

WEEKLY TV DIGEST: There are already 20 radio stations in 14 cities broadcasting in FM stereo . . . NBC is sending a 16-man team to Nigeria in mid-November to help that government establish a national TV system.

HOLLYWOOD REPORTER: In case you think the high salaries paid today's TV stars is a "new development," bear in mind that during the silent film era, stars like Tom Mix, Charlie Chaplin and Mary Pickford got $10,000 a week plus bonuses — and taxes were lower . . . Sinatra says that his only TV appearance this season will be on the Judy Garland special . . . It was 25 years ago — or so — that MGM signed an unknown comedian named Red Skelton, because Mickey Rooney, then a hot box-office attraction for MGM, pestered MGM executives to give Skelton a "break."

MEL ALLEN SWITCHES TO FOOTBALL: Now that the World Series is out of the way, sportscaster Mel Allen will switch to football. He will cover regional telecasts of the N.C.A.A. football games over the ABC network.

"ALCOA PREMIERE" has engaged a group of the most outstanding and respected writers, producers and directors in the business," said Richard Lewis, executive producer of ABC-TV's scribe her as a woman who can't do enough for other people. She has bankrolled numerous artists, writers, composers and other talented youngsters when they needed help.

To Joan, this is repayment of a sort.

"I've been fortunate," she explained. "I was in the right place at the right time and, suddenly, I was in the movies. When that happens, it's just plain good luck good."

Luck, perhaps, but meeting Joan Crawford, one has the feeling that brains and personality had quite a bit to do with her success, too.

new anthology series.

"We've seen too many series dwindle down into run-of-the mill mediocrity, or worse, because the burden of grinding out a show, week after week, and maintaining quality is just too much for one man," continued Lewis, "so we decided, in order to create the best, we needed the best of everything."

MIRIAM HOPKINS, long a stage and screen favorite, guest stars as a silent screen star whose valuable collection of paintings mysteriously disappears, in an episode of "The Investigators" which went before the cameras recently for broadcast later in the season. For series star, James Franciscus, it represented a then-and-now look at his own rapid success. Just six years ago, as a Yale undergraduate, he served as stage manager for a summer stock production of "Hay Fever," starring Miss Hopkins, in Dennis, Mass.

ELINOR DONAHUE, featured on "The Andy Griffith Show" and "Father Knows Best," will co-star with Nick Adams, as his wife, in "A Voice on the Phone," scheduled for presentation later this season on "The General Electric Theater." The Ken Kolb teleplay concerns a "practical joker" who terrifies innocent people by telephone.

CHARLTON HESTER, Eddie Foy Jr., Dick Button, Betty Johnson, Richard Kiley, comedians Bob and Ray, with Gene Barry — TV's "Bat Masterson" — as host, will celebrate "An Old-fashioned Thanksgiving," in the hour-long musical revue to be presented by the Westinghouse Electric Company, Tuesday, November 21 (ABC-TV, 10-11 p.m., EST). This will be the fourth of a series of 18 "specials" under the general title "Westinghouse Presents."

With the Thanksgiving spirit as leit-motif of the program, Americana in music, dance and literature reflecting the festival mood at various stages of our country's history will provide the material for "An Old-fashioned Thanksgiving." With the exception of the single taped sequence featuring Charlton Heston — he will be abroad making a film — the program will be presented live from New York.

CAN CAST SPELLS?

To congratulate George Eckstein, casting director of "The Untouchables" who authorized "Jigsaw," a script for the series which soon goes into production, Bob Stack sent him an instant speller, a new device which gives the spelling of 6,000 words in handy desk telephone listing style.

JOAN CRAWFORD . . . the glamorous star narrates a musical tribute to the late Florenz Ziegfeld in "The Ziegfeld Touch" on the "Du Pont Show of the Week" Sunday, October 29, 10-11 p.m. NBC-TV.

major soft-drink companies and frequently travels on their behalf. This came about after her husband, Alfred Steele, passed away, and she took up his business interests.

ALWAYS BEEN ACTIVE

"And if that isn't enough," admitted the busy Miss Crawford during rehearsals of "The Ziegfeld Touch," "I've got two charming daughters to raise."

Joan admits that she's been active all her life and wouldn't have it any other way.

"I was a kid when I broke into the movies," she recalled. "After that, I made as many as six or seven pictures in a year. And that's hard work."

The other side of show business that hasn't yet interested Joan is the legitimate theater. Standing on the stage of the Ziegfeld Theater, which once housed the great Ziegfeld Follies and is now an NBC studio, she explained her

"I never actually knew Ziegfeld. As a child, I saw one or two of his shows and that was all. So when producer Bill Nichols came to me with the script, I asked, 'Why me?'"

Nichols answered, "Because Ziegfeld symbolized glamour for his generations, just as you do for yours."

MADE GREAT STARS

That was enough. Within a few days, the contracts were signed.

"Ziegfeld never made a movie," Joan continued. "But he certainly found some people who became great movie stars. Paulette Goddard was a Ziegfeld girl and so was Irene Dunne. Billie Burke was one of his brightest discoveries and later became his second wife."

"And his shows were filled with movie people, like Will Rogers, Eddie Cantor, W. C. Fields and Al Jolson."

Many of these stars will be seen in "The Ziegfeld Touch," as a business woman. "And there's a TV series in the works. But after what happened on television to Barbara Stanwyck, June Allyson and Loretta Young, I doubt if the time is right."

Whatever she does, Joan is bound to get a grand reception. She is what show business people call a "pro" with an intuitive knowledge of just the right thing to do.

A perfect example was provided during the first day's rehearsal for "The Ziegfeld Touch." Joan discovered that the Ziegfeld Theater was without a soft-drink machine and, at the time, New York was sweltering in a heat wave.

Within a few hours, the necessary equipment was delivered to the studio. The coin slot was covered so that the cast and crew could be refreshed while they worked without paying a cent.

Those who know Joan insist this is typical of her nature. They de-

OPTIONED BY SCIENTISTS

A group of atomic scientists at Alamogordo, N. M., were granted permission to use as their insignia the Tasmanian Devil, a cartoon character from "The Bugs Bunny Show." In motion, the Tasmanian Devil crashes through any object in its path.

"Give me a landlord to fix the plumbing," says Bob Conrad of "Hawaiian Eye" in explaining to home owners why he and his family are sold on apartment living. "The thought of cutting grass," he adds, "makes me weak."

Sing Along's Mitch Miller says that in Europe these days it's wise child who knows his own Fatherland!

Tom Poston of "To Tell the Truth" says: Save your pennies . . . Internal Revenue will take care of your dollars!

Bob Banner Associates' Joe Hamilton, producer of the "Garry Moore Show," is the father of eight kids and says the although his wife tries to make him feel that he is the head of the house he knows that he's just chairman of the entertainment committee!

Barry Sullivan of "Tall Man" says that, even on a golf course, men aren't safe from women drivers.

Peggie Castle of "Lawman" asserts that the only time Russia will bury the hatchet with the western powers is when she finds a vulnerable spot!

Alan Reed, the voice of Fred Flintstone, says heavy taxes are just fines for reckless thriving!

Henry Morgan of "I've Got A Secret" says many a person murders opportunity by killing time!
